

Relationships Australia

AUSTRALIAN POETRY
CENTRE

Relationships Australia and the Australian Poetry Centre proudly present...

DEAR DAD
Poems by Australians about Fathers

Relationships Australia, the Australian Poetry Centre and designers/publishers Gracia and Louise have joined forces to produce a book on Dads and what being a dad or fatherhood means to Australians. Celebrating Dads, this attractive alternative to the average Father's Day Card, includes the best poems about Dads from poets across the country, contributions from esteemed poet, Chris Wallace-Crabbe, as well as TV and radio personalities Alan Brough and John Clarke.

John Clarke and his dad, Ted

Better than a Father's Day card -
More meaning than a gift book

Order now as a gift for your Dad this father's day, by clicking here

MY DAD

By Leonard Levien (age 9)

He's My Dad.
He's my coach,
He's my mate.
He's my dad.

He carries all my gear,
He likes a quiet beer.
He's my dad.

He's good for a hug,
And a pat on the back.
He's my dad.

He'll give me "THE LOOK",
When I'm going crook.
He's my dad.

He helps me with homework
And takes me to school.
He's my dad.

He takes me to the park,
Until it's almost dark.
He's my dad.

He doesn't say much,
But he's a really soft touch.
He's my dad.

I never say out loud,
But I want to make him proud.
Cause,

HE'S MY DAD.