

We have your learning needs covered in 2021

Relationships Australia Victoria (RAV) has an established reputation for delivering quality training, with national and international expertise, and over 70 years' experience delivering services across a range of areas related to family relationships.

As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO 21977), RAV provides quality higher education, vocational training and professional development in a range of areas relating to relationship counselling, family dispute resolution (FDR), mediation and relationship education.

Become a Qualified Practitioner

We provide the following accredited courses for those looking to develop their skills FDR, mediation and relationship counselling. Graduate Diploma courses include a fully arranged and supported placement program and all courses are facilitated by leading clinicians, professionals and practitioners.

- Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution (CHC81115): This VSL-approved course provides graduates with the skills to apply for registration as qualified FDR practitioners with the Attorney General's Department.
- Graduate Diploma of Relationship Counselling (CHC81015): For practitioners wishing to obtain an understanding of family violence in the context of various relationships.

We're pleased to introduce our free Learn More webinars, where you will have the opportunity to hear firsthand from our accredited course facilitators and ask any questions you may have.

Mediation Short Course

This course provides an entry pathway into the Graduate Diploma of FDR, and meets the National Mediator Accredited System (NMAS) course requirements for students wishing to undertake the additional assessment day to become an accredited mediator.

Customised Training

- A personalised one-on-one consultancy service
- A tailored, needs-based approach to design and delivery
- Research and evidence-led programs
- Onsite training, as well as online and webinar options
- Accredited DiSC Profile assessments for individuals and teams.

As a leading training provider, our training is visionary in design and delivery. We can tailor training to suit your individual workplace needs, working with you to design a program and learning outcomes. We will also discuss with you the best form of facilitation to suit your workforce and workplace, whether that be face-to-face, an online workshop or a webinar.

Clinical Supervision

Our priority is ensuring we provide tailored solutions to accommodate your professional development needs. We are pleased to offer tailored clinical supervision sessions for clinicians and practitioners working in a variety of fields in the community sector.

Supervision is facilitated by our Australian Health Practitioner Regulatory Agency (AHPRA) and NMAS accredited and highly experienced clinician supervisors and family dispute resolution practitioners.

“Great training. Really relevant. I will be implementing some of the ideas in future training and interactions.” – Training participant

Online Professional Development Workshops and Webinar Program

We offer online research and evidence-led training workshops and webinars to enable you to further your professional development, in flexible, accessible and interactive ways from the comfort of your own workspace.

Our training is facilitated by national and international clinicians and experts, and designed for professionals working with families, children, parents and couples in the community, health and education sectors.
